

SHARK HUNTING IS DANGEROUS

(Correspondence Associated Press)
HONOLULU, T. H., June 26.—Using the entire carcass of a horse for bait, a Honolulu sportsman went fishing recently in a power boat and returned with a fish weighing 2500 pounds and measuring almost 20 feet from tip to tip, the largest shark killed in Hawaiian waters for many years.

Shark fishing, or rather hunting, as it is conducted in Hawaii is a thrilling sport not entirely lacking in danger to the hunter. In fact a death battle with a harpooned shark, according to big game hunters, is about as safe as a midnight combat with a hungry tiger. Sharks, in their death throes, have been known to attack the boat and with their powerful rows of serrated teeth, rip great sections from the sides.

The shark hunter first obtains a dead horse, and if it has been dead a week, so much the better. The power boat tows the carcass outside the harbor and the hunt is on. Sharks attracted by the odor of the bait gather in large numbers and soon begin striking at the carcass, ripping huge chunks of flesh from it. At this stage the hunter endeavors to work his boat near enough to permit a shot with the harpoon. Once securely harpooned a big shark will fight for hours before succumbing.

Recently, in Hawaii, shark hunting has been placed on a commercial basis and the development of a big industry is forecast. Shark fins are deemed a great delicacy by Orientals and dried shark meat has found a ready market. The catching of shark meat is being considered. Shark liver yields a valuable oil.

SWEET MARIE OF RUMANIA

BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 21.—Queen Marie of Rumania is at present busily engaged in assisting in the distribution of a trainload of American Red Cross supplies, which she personally conveyed from Paris to Bucharest.

During her recent visit to France, the queen made known the emergency medical needs of the Rumanian soldiers and refugees. She obtained three carloads of medical and surgical equipment from the Red Cross and had three cars attached to the royal train on her return journey. Upon arrival here the supplies were immediately dispatched to central points for distribution to the military hospitals which were in need. Other supplies were set aside for the refugees fleeing from the fighting zone in Bessarabia.

These supplies have now been augmented by a shipload of material which has arrived at Galatz from the Red Cross storehouses in Athens. To insure their prompt delivery, Lieut. Col. Henry W. Anderson, Red Cross commissioner to the Balkans, himself accompanied the ship from Athens. It was met at Galatz by Rumanian staff officers, and its arrival was the occasion for a remarkable demonstration on the part of the populace.

The resumption of hostilities in Bessarabia is keeping the hospitals there well filled and is adding hundreds to the already large number of homeless refugees.

LONDON KIDS LIKE MOVIES

(Correspondence Associated Press)
LONDON, June 30.—London school children like the movies, more than 90 per cent, it was developed by a recent investigation, being more or less regular in their attendance upon such exhibitions.

Analysis of replies from 6500 youngsters who were asked to write their preferences show that domestic stories have first place. Others in order of preference are cowboy adventure, comics, war films, serials, crimes, love stories, educational.

The popularity of moving pictures in London is proved by the fact that a new corporation will soon invest $10,000,000 in picture palaces.

The Nye county board of equalization is in session for the purpose of hearing complaints from property owners who think they have been assessed too high. The sessions will continue all week.

SERBIAN HELP AT RIGHT TIME

(Correspondence Associated Press)
PIROT, Serbia, June 15.—Kerosene distributed with other relief supplies by Red Cross agents here was received as if it were gold. A short time before, the mayor of Pirot had paid $110 for five gallons of the precious liquid. During the entire Bulgarian occupation the inhabitants of this district had no lights in their homes after sundown.

Bread had been selling at 50 cents a pound and the poor, unable to pay such a price, were living on cornmeal and oats. Now, with the arrival of tons of American flour and carloads of other supplies the situation is much relieved.

Dozens of children have been found in abandoned houses living on the charity of neighbors. Mothers are ready to give up their children to anyone who will give them food and shelter. There are thousands of orphans with no one to care for them. The number of widows is distressingly large.

The famous rug-making industry here is at a standstill but the Americans are trying to re-establish the peasants at their old trade. As the Bulgarians took all the machinery, metal and tools of any value, the workers in mechanical trades now are without implements.

DEPUTY GAME WARDEN GETS VIOLATORS OF LAW

A party of hunters from Tonopah were arrested at Dry Creek Monday evening by Deputy State Game Warden H. A. Kearns of Austin, and charged with violating section 362 of the game laws of the state of Nevada. Two of the party were confined in the holdover for 12 hours but were given their liberty upon the payment of fines. "Happy" Jack Barrier, sheriff of Nye county, however, was out fishing, and wasn't with this bunch.—Reese River Revue.

REDS GAINING OVER SIBERIA

(Correspondence Associated Press)
TOKIO, June 15.—The Bolsheviks in Siberia still are engaged in propaganda work and organizing their army, says a semi-official report received here. Those in the southern part of the Maritime province appear to have completed the organization of their army, for since the beginning of May, they have been destroying railroads, attacking trains and capturing stations.

About 1500 Bolsheviks, early in the morning of June 3, attacked the Japanese garrison at Ipolitovka and caused some casualties. The total strength of the enemy in the region of Soochan, south of Ipolitovka, is estimated at from 4000 to 5000. Their headquarters seem to be located in the neighborhood of Ipolovka.

The Bolsheviks in Amur province are engaged only in propaganda work and are not concentrated in any formidable number. Those in the direction of Za-Baikal are grouped together in the vicinity of Nelchinsky, their total number being about 4000. On account of the pressure from the troops of General Semenov, says the report, these Bolsheviks are demoralized.

OFF FOR NEW GOLDFIELDS

George Sowers, Oscar Forman and John Krotzer left yesterday on a long prospecting trip, well supplied with provisions and digging tools. Before leaving they exhibited a number of fabulously rich gold specimens and intimated that the ground was subject to location. As they headed south the inference was drawn that a new gold camp will soon be announced in southern White Pine or northern Lincoln county.—Ely Record.
